

MUSIC LEADERS

Dana Pardy and Kevin Parks are pleased to be giving music leadership at this year's conference meetings. Kevin and Dana have been collaborators in music ministry for 25+ years. Their interests span the music spectrum as they are equally at home performing classically as soloist/accompanist, and as worship music animators in contemporary styles and global genres. They have worked jointly in congregations in the Maritimes and British Columbia, and have contributed to original Vacation Bible School programs. They have been co-music directors of St. Luke's Community Players productions of Annie, Wizard of Oz, Oliver and this year's Fiddler on the Roof. Dana is Director of Music at St. Luke's United Church, Tantallon, and Music Education Specialist at Giant Steps Children's Centres. She holds a B. Mus. from Mount Allison, M. Mus in Opera Performance from University of British Columbia and a Graduate Certificate in Music Therapy from Acadia University. Kevin is Minister of Music at St. Andrew's United Church, Halifax and University Musician at Atlantic School of Theology. He holds a B. Mus. from Mount Allison and has completed course work at AST. They live in Timberlea, NS with their three teenage children.
