

INTERMEDIATES AT CONFERENCE COVENANT

We are not alone, we live in God's world!

Wherever two or three are gathered, God is present! (Matthew 18:20)

When we gather, we have responsibilities:

Towards ourselves

Towards the others with whom we gather, and

Towards God.

Participant Name: _____

As a participant of the Maritime Conference Intermediates at Conference 2017 community, I will participate in following the standards described in this document, and the standards that will be collectively created when the I@C 2017 community gathers. I recognize that I@C is intended to be a time of growth, both educationally and spiritually, as well as a time of fun. To benefit my own experience, and to respect that of other participants' and staff, I accept and agree to be willing to participate in the entire weekend.

Community in Action: When a group names and agrees to its shared responsibilities, it takes ownership and pride in creating a responsible and caring event by setting standards that are agreeable to all.

Living in Solidarity and Building Healthy Connections: Living in solidarity means that we will recognize our responsibility for helping to build a strong community. Certain behaviours contribute to the health of a community, while others can be unsafe and can create unhealthy tensions and breakdown in community.

As participants of I@C 2017, we will celebrate the incredible diversity of I@C's participants and strive to not discriminate against individuals on the basis of race, culture, colour, sexual orientation, gender identity, sex, abilities, age, class, and theological beliefs. We expect that all participants will work towards making I@C 2017 free of discrimination and exclusion.

Statement of Commitment: To participate in I@C 2017, I will accept and agree to live by the following standards:

I choose to commit to all of the standards in this covenant.

I choose not to consume alcohol.

I choose not to use illicit drugs.

I choose not to engage in sexual activities.

I choose not to use verbal or physical violence or to bully others.

I will uphold the laws of New Brunswick and Canada

I will respect the Mt. A Campus and its employees.

Cell Phone Policy: I will only use my phone when not engaged in I@C 2017 activities. I will respect the engagement of the Home Group and Large Group space by keeping my phone away, or following rules as agreed on in my Home Group space.

I commit to upholding these standards for the duration of the I@C 2017 event, including travel to and from its location. I understand that should I fail to adhere to these standards I may be removed from participation in the group, and/or my parents/guardians contacted and my time at I@C to be terminated.
