Title: Charlottetown: Trinity Pastoral Charge fonds

Dates: 1836-2018

Extent: 3.7 metres of textual records; 5 photographs; 1 DVD; 1 metal ornament; and 2 microfilms

Administrative History: A pastoral charge consists of one or more communities of faith (known as preaching points prior to 2018) under the spiritual leadership of a minister. The pastoral charge title usually reflects the breadth of the geographic area encompassing the charge.

Charlottetown, Trinity Pastoral Charge is located on Prince Edward Island. Preaching points are Trinity United Church, Charlottetown and Clifton-Bunbury United Church in Bunbury. Clifton-Bunbury is a seasonal church without electricity; services are held there from June to October.

In 1925, upon the formation of The United Church of Canada, First Methodist Church in Charlottetown became Trinity United Church. Trinity United Church was the first church in eastern Canada to broadcast its service on the radio on January 25, 1925.

In 1848, a Methodist church was built on Clifton Road in Banbury. The church was dedicated in the spring of 1849. It was associated with the Pownal Methodist Circuit which had been organized in 1846. When The United Church of Canada was formed in 1925, Clifton became part of the Pownal Pastoral Charge which also included Pownal, Millview and Mount Herbert. For a brief time Clifton was also part of the Kensington Pastoral Charge. With a view to the future, a site adjacent to Clifton United Church was secured by the congregation of Clifton and Mount Herbert in 1963, the two points having become part of Trinity Pastoral Charge in 1962. Mount Herbert amalgamated with Trinity in 1970.

Effective January 1, 2019, The United Church of Canada underwent some structural changes including the elimination of all Presbyteries. At this time, Charlottetown: Trinity Pastoral Charge became part of the Fundy St. Lawrence Dawning Waters Regional Council.

Custodial History: Information about the custody of these records prior to acquisition is incomplete.

Scope and Content: Fonds consists of baptism/marriage/burial records; membership records; minutes; financial accounts; a deed; resolutions; a petition; a pew plan; reports; photographs; policy manuals; correspondence; an honour roll; a DVD; a metal ornament; orders of service; published and unpublished histories; and newspaper clippings. Immediate Source of Acquisition: It is assumed that some of the earlier records were received with Methodist holdings which had been held at Mount Allison University Archives and were transferred to the Conference Archives in 1968. Two pieces of correspondence in the files indicate that records had been sent to Mount Allison in 1928. Other records were received in 1990 (September 1990); 1998 (accession 98-060); 2010 (accession 10-1047); 2012 (accession 12-019); 2015 (accession 15-043); 2016 (accession 16-052); 2017 (accessions 17-048, 17-054 and 17-110); and 2019 (accession 19-055). Microfilms were received from the Provincial Archives of Prince Edward Island in 1983 and 1991.

Nash, 1908, 37 pp.; and "Outlines of the history of Methodism in Charlottetown," 1888, 75 pp.

Associated Material: Records of the church were deposited in the Provincial Archives of Prince Edward Island in 1989 (accession 3295). The PEI Archives also holds microfilm of those same records as well as records of Pownal (1856-1967) which was related to the Clifton church.

Title: Charlottetown Methodist Circuit/First Methodist Church records

Dates: 1836-1925

Extent: 1.22 metres of textual records and 1 photograph

Administrative History: Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Chappell had a large role in introducing Methodism in Charlottetown. They moved to Charlottetown in 1778 and began to hold prayer meetings in their home. At the close of the American Revolutionary War, when a large number of Loyalists went to Island from the United States, a Methodist Society was formed and met at Chappell's house. In 1792, Rev. William Grandin, a minister in Nova Scotia, held some services in Charlottetown and Tryon and a large revival took place. Ministers passing through the area would occasionally preach some services until Rev. James Bulpitt, the first minister appointed to the Charlottetown Methodist Circuit, arrived in July 1807. Rev. J.B. Strong formed the first Sunday School of any denomination on Prince Edward Island in 1816. This Sunday School was known as the Wesleyan Methodist Sunday School of Charlottetown.

The first Methodist meeting house was built on Richmond Street in 1817 on land which had been donated in 1810. Land was then purchased on the corner of Prince and Richmond Streets in 1834 and a larger chapel was built in 1835. The cornerstone of the present building of Trinity United Church was laid for a Methodist church on 25 May 1863. The church opened on 13 November 1864. It was referred to as the "Brick Church" and would later become known as First Methodist Church. A Sunday School building, Hertz Memorial Hall, was built in 1911.

Grace Church and First Methodist Church were united between 1915 and 1919.

A third Methodist meeting place on the East Side between Euston and Fitzroy Streets was Kensington Hall (1898). The last recorded annual meeting there was 23 May 1916.

In 1925, First Methodist Church in Charlottetown became part of The United Church of Canada.
