Title: Kensington Pastoral Charge fonds

Dates: 1890-2018

Extent: 138 cm of textual records and 3 photographs

Administrative History: A pastoral charge consists of one or more communities of faith under the spiritual leadership of a minister. The pastoral charge title usually reflects the breadth of the geographic area encompassing the charge.

Kensington Pastoral Charge of the United Church of Canada is located on Prince Edward Island and is comprised of Kensington United Church.

When a vote was taken to create the United Church of Canada in 1925, one hundred and five Presbyterians in Kensington voted for union and ninety eight were against it. These 105 Presbyterians along with the members of the Methodist Church created a single congregation in Kensington and used the Methodist building as their place of worship. At this time, Kensington Pastoral Charge included Kensington, Clifton, and Summerfield. In 1926, Clifton was moved to the Margate Pastoral Charge.

In 2008, Summerfield United Church amalgamated with Kensington United Church.

Effective January 1, 2019, The United Church of Canada underwent some structural changes including the elimination of all Presbyteries. At this time, Kensington Pastoral Charge became part of the Fundy St. Lawrence Dawning Waters Regional Council.

Custodial History: Information about the custody of these records prior to acquisition is incomplete.

Scope and Content: Fonds consists of membership rolls; minutes; reports; newsletters; minutes; reports; photographs; orders of service; published and unpublished histories; and newspaper clippings from Kensington Pastoral Charge and its Presbyterian and Methodist antecedents. Title: Kensington Methodist Church records

Dates: 1890-1925

Extent: 4.8 cm of textual records

Administrative History: A Methodist church was organized and built in Margate in 1835. During this time the church was served by ministers from Charlottetown and Bedeque. Margate became the head of its own circuit in 1858. At this time the appointments of Margate Methodist Circuit were Margate, Stanley Bridge, Granville, Bowness School House, Summerside, Port Hill, and Fifteen Point.

In the early 1870's, the appointments were Margate, Granville, Irishtown, Stanley Bridge and Pleasant Valley. Restructuring in 1893 placed Granville, Pleasant Valley and Stanley Bridge on the Granville Methodist Circuit while Freetown was taken from the Bedeque Methodist Circuit and added to the Margate Methodist Circuit.

On December 5, 1887, the Official Board of the Margate Methodist Circuit held a meeting in Granville to plan for the erection of a church in Kensington. Kensington Methodist Church was dedicated in September 1889. It was situated on property donated by the Honourable G. W. W. Bentley. Prior to the building of the church, worship was conducted at a hall on the property.

A new manse was constructed in Kensington in 1905.

In 1924, Margate Methodist Circuit contained the appointments of Margate, Kensington, and Freetown.

When a vote was taken to create the United Church of Canada in 1925, one hundred and five Presbyterians voted for union and ninety eight were against it. These 105 Presbyterians along with the members of the Methodist Church created a single congregation in Kensington and used the Methodist church building as their place of worship.

Title: Kensington Presbyterian Pastoral Charge records

Dates: 1912-1925

Extent: 7.8 cm of textual records

Administrative History: The Presbyterian church in Kensington was originally led by ministers from Malpeque. A new Presbyterian Church was built in 1886 on land donated by William Glover. When a vote was taken to create the United Church of Canada 6 January 1925, one hundred and five Presbyterians voted for union and ninety eight were against it. These 105 Presbyterians along with the Methodist created a single congregation in Kensington and the Methodist building was heavily renovated to house them in 1928.

Summerfield was largely created through the efforts of the Rev. Hugh Dunbar, a Presbyterian minister who also taught school at Norboro. Construction on a church building started at Summerfield in 1855. Land for the building and adjoining cemetery was donated by Peter Sinclair. This old building was moved in 1888 and converted into a public hall and a new, larger, church was constructed and opened on January 13, 1889. Summerfield was part of the New London Presbyterian Pastoral Charge until it was paired with Bedeque in 1905. Early in 1917, Summerfield was united with Kensington. In April 1925 the church was struck by lightning and destroyed by fire. A new church was dedicated on November 7, 1926 as "The First United Church, Summerfield.
