

Prayer Bench Program: Soul of the Preacher, beginning April 15 on Zoom.

This program was offered last spring and fall in the Pacific Region through LeaderShift. Here is a taste of feedback that was typical both times:

- "Gave me time in the week to just stop and slow down. I really appreciated that how un-hurried it all was."
- "I found the structure of the program very "nourishing". It nourished my mind, heart and soul at a difficult time. I find it hard to push myself to make time for spiritual practice, including this calmed me in order to take in some of the other things."
- "I liked the conversational tone of the series, and while I absolutely gained wisdom and insight from everything Janice said, I also very much appreciated the opportunities provided for all of us to contribute, and the smaller group discussions as well."
- "This series took me out of my comfort zone, and I have to admit that pre-Covid I might not have even signed up, however; I found myself needing to have a face to face interactive learning experience, and this not only provided that for me, it also opened me to a more introspective side of preaching."
