REGION 15 ORGANIZATION CHART

Affirming Statement

TBD - Executive moved to strike an affirming working group to engage this process March 5, 2019.

Governance Handbook Document Responsibility and Handling:

This Region 15 Governance Handbook is intended to be a living document. The Regional Divisions and Committees will live into their terms of reference. Changes and edits, especially in the first few years are expected. The Regional Executive is responsible for keeping the most current version of this document and approving changes that come from the Divisions and keeping Communities of Faith informed of the changes. Regional Executive staff Secretary will enter the changes and keep the official version at Regional office. It is intended that this handbook will be kept online and available to all who wish to refer to it.

Bermuda: The Methodist Church in Bermuda has a special relationship to the United Church. That relationship is governed by a series of different documents and some acts of national government. Currently, we are trying to work out arrangements for Bermuda and Nova Scotia to go forward as Region 15. When those discussions are complete, there may well be another series of changes to this document needed.

Note: Note: Where the Manual of the United Church of Canada and this Governance Handbook conflict, the United Church Manual shall have precedence.

The Nominations Committee will track service terms. Nominations committee will advise if there are special circumstances where different terms of appointments are required. The same terms of appointments apply to all Divisions and Committees members.

Regional Council Annual Meetings

Delegates to Regional Council will be the Regional Executive, Representatives from the Communities of Faith and all Ministerial Personnel. The Executive Minister, President (Chairs vote in case of tie) and Regional staff will support this meeting (staff do not vote).

At the end of the Regional Council annual meeting, a motion should be made to delegate power to the Regional Executive on all matters.

Special Meetings

The following guidelines regarding the function of Region 15 and its Executive, Division and its Committees provide the basic framework. Special meetings of the Executive or Division may be called at the request of the President, Executive Minister or 2 members of the Executive. Likewise special meetings for Divisions and Committees maybe called by Chairs, Executive Minister or 2 members of the Divisions or Committees.

Committee chairs must report all activities and the designated individuals who undertake each activity to the Division. Committee chairs will need to notify nominations regarding the need for designated individuals to undertake specific tasks (the Chair may signal to Nominations if there is no genuine need for the Secretary role to be filled). Committees may add additional individuals as needed for specific tasks (please notify Nominations when doing this). If a Committee chair is not an elected Regional Council representative from a Community of Faith, they will be considered corresponding members of the Regional Executive and Regional Council, with the ability to speak to issues but not vote at Regional Council or its Executive. Division chairs are ex-officio members to the Committees in their Division and can, if there is a need, attend or call a meeting of a Committee within their Division.

This will include noting any decisions that are required to be referred to the next level of governance.

Accountability and Decisions

The power of decision-making is specified for each body in the Regional Council governance structure. Regional Council has full authority to decide on all matters within its jurisdiction. Regional Council Executive has full authority to decide on all matters within the jurisdiction of the Regional Council subject to any limitations imposed by the Regional Council. All meetings of the Regional Council and Executive are open unless otherwise decided. Committees/Divisions are given specific authority to make certain specific decisions (see the power sections). Anything else outside these powers require ratification by the Regional Council Executive. The decisions within the Committee/Division's powers are final, binding and effective when the Committee/Division makes them.

Formal Appeals: Appeals of decisions of the Regional Council, its Executive or Committees/Divisions are heard by the General Council Judicial Committee. Appeals from Communities of Faith and their governing bodies are heard through the Regional Council.

Throughout this governance handbook we have identified separate Region 15 Committees within the reporting action and accountability structure. At the same time, all Committees are strongly encouraged to work with similar Committees in other Regions on matters of mutual interest as appropriate.

APPENDIX A

Principles and Guidelines for Mission Support Grants

PURPOSE

Mission Support Grants (MSG) come from money designated for mission in Canada through the Mission and Service Fund of the United Church. The money is shared between the Regions across the country to be distributed annually for mission and ministry in the name of Jesus, the Christ.

The principles, priorities, and guidelines provided in this document are intended to guide the Finance Accountability and Consultation Committee, in its decision-making regarding distribution of Mission Support Grant funds in Regional Council 15.

THEOLOGICAL RATIONALE

The Bible teaches that doing for others is doing for Christ. From the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter 25, Verse 35 to 40: "For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?' And the king will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me'"

"We are not alone," goes the familiar opening line of the New Creed of the United Church of Canada. The New Creed also says, "We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus."

As we seek to align ourselves with God's work of restoration, healing, and reconciliation, the United Church acts for peace, justice, care for creation, and God's mission of healing the whole world, in cooperation with others who share our vision. As we practice love and justice with humility and prayer, we learn how to be faithful coworkers in God's mission. We call this approach "partnership."

Partnership means becoming involved with others in God's mission for wholeness of life especially on behalf of the poor and powerless. Partnership brings people together in community for mutual empowerment through the sharing of gifts, recognized as gifts freely given by God for the benefit of all, not possessions which some may control.

("Seeking to Understand Partnership for God's Mission Today" Statement of General Council 1988, Reaffirmed 2000)

PRINCIPLES

The Finance Accountability and Consultation Committee defines the principles for mission and ministry in Regional Council 15.

- Proclaim God's love through living Jesus' example of radical hospitality, inclusion, and care,
- Improve the circumstances of people who are poor, vulnerable, and marginalized,
- Build right relations between diverse peoples and the earth,
- Help to strengthen communities to be healthy, safe, and sustainable,
- Teach and nurture Christian faith and practice.

Preference will be given to ministries which follow these principles.
