Title: Amherst: Trinity-St. Stephen's Pastoral Charge fonds

Dates: 1823-2019

Extent: 6.8 metres of textual records; 53 photographs; and 3 drawings

Administrative History: A pastoral charge consists of one or more communities of faith (known as preaching points prior to 2019) under the spiritual leadership of a minister. The pastoral charge title usually reflects the breadth of the geographic area encompassing the charge.

Trinity-St. Stephen's United Church is located in Amherst, Cumberland County, Nova Scotia on the corner of Havelock and Ratchford Street.

On June 10, 1925, the Congregational, Methodist and most Presbyterian Churches in Canada were united into one denomination--The United Church of Canada. At this time, St. Stephen's Presbyterian Church and Trinity Methodist Church in Amherst became part of The United Church of Canada under their own pastoral charges. St. Stephen's United Church and Trinity United Church were united to form Trinity-St. Stephen's United Church in 1936. The congregation chose to use the Trinity United Church building. The St. Stephen's United Church building was used as a recreation hall until after World War II when it was torn down.

In 1957, Fort Lawrence United Church amalgamated with Trinity-St. Stephen's United Church. The Fort Lawrence church building was sold to the Reformed Baptist church in Amherst in 1959 and it was taken down and moved to Spring Street.

Custodial History: Information about the custody of these records prior to acquisition is incomplete.

Scope and Content: Fonds consists of baptism/marriage/burial records, membership rolls, minutes, reports, financial records, attendance rolls, newsletters, scrapbooks, photographs, and published and unpublished histories from Trinity-St. Stephen's Pastoral Charge and its Methodist, Presbyterian, and United Church predecessors. Fonds is composed of following sub-fonds:

- Trinity-St. Stephen's United Church records
- Trinity Methodist Church records
- Trinity United Church records
- St. Stephen's Presbyterian Church records
- St. Stephen's United Church records
- Knox Presbyterian Church records

Title: Amherst Methodist Circuit/Trinity Methodist Church (Amherst) records

Dates: 1823-1925

Extent: 82.5 cm of textual records and 5 photographs

Administrative History: Methodists had been active in the Amherst-Point de Bute-Sackville area since the 1780s. After a building built for Baptists was opened in 1819, the Methodist congregation worshiped here but then moved to the Court House in 1824. In these early years Amherst was part of the vast Parrsboro Maccan Circuit. It was not until 1841 when the first Methodist church was erected in Amherst. Amherst became the head of a Methodist circuit in 1847.

In 1874 the present site for a new Methodist church was purchased from C.E. Ratchford, and in 1876, a building with a seating capacity of 350 was dedicated. This proved too small for the growing congregation and on August 22, 1906 the cornerstone was laid for a 1200 person capacity church. The builder was Charles Reid and the architect was C.B. Chappell. The new building was opened 22 September 1907 and became Trinity Methodist Church.

A Methodist church was also established at Fort Lawrence, located on the Isthmus of Chignecto, north-west of Amherst. A Methodist chapel was built in 1807. This chapel was used until 1845 when a new church was built. In 1893 the cornerstone was laid for a third building which was opened for worship in 1894. A Methodist mission was begun in the "Highlands" of Amherst in 1905. This church separated from Trinity Methodist into a separate circuit including Fort Lawrence and Brookdale.

In 1925, the Methodist congregations of Amherst, Fort Lawrence, and Brookdale became part of The United Church of Canada.

Title: St. Stephen's Presbyterian Church (Amherst) records

Dates: 1881-1925

Extent: 19 cm of textual records and 1 photograph

Administrative History: In 1827, Reformed Presbyterian (Scottish Covenanter) minister Rev. Alexander Clark arrived in Amherst and established a church. A building was erected at the corner of Albion and Church Streets. Clark continued as minister of this congregation until his death in 1874.

St. Stephen's Presbyterian Church of The Presbyterian Church in Canada was established on 30 August 1875. Services were held in the Masonic hall, then located on the corner of Victoria Street and Maple Avenue. The Sunday School was organized in 1876. When the Masonic hall burned in 1877, the congregation moved to White's Hall, the site of the present Baptist Church.

In 1878, construction began on St. Stephen's on the corner of Lawrence and Victoria Street, and it was officially opened in that year. In 1880, there was a suggestion of a union between the Presbyterian Church and the Reformed Presbyterian Church in Amherst. This suggestion was rejected by the Reformed Presbyterians. After their last minister, Rev. S.D. Yates, left in 1887, most of the Reformed Presbyterians joined St. Stephen's. The St. Stephen's congregation outgrew their former building and a new church was opened in 1900.

In 1903, the congregation divided and Knox Church was organized. In 1911, however, the two churches reunited and Knox Church on Robie Street was sold. In 1925 St. Stephen's Presbyterian voted to join the union which created The United Church of Canada and it became St. Stephen's United Church.

Scope and Content: Sous-fonds consists of baptism/marriage/burial records, membership rolls, minutes, attendance rolls, library registers, a newspaper clipping, and a photograph from St. Stephen's Presbyterian Church. Sous-fonds is composed of following series:

Title: Fort Lawrence Methodist/United Church records

Dates: 1895-1959

Extent: 12 cm of textual records and 1 drawing

Administrative History: A Methodist mission was begun in the “Highlands” of Amherst in 1905. This church separated from Trinity Methodist into a separate circuit including Fort Lawrence and Brookdale. In 1925, with the formation of the United Church of Canada, this circuit became a Pastoral Charge. In 1957, Fort Lawrence United Church amalgamated with Trinity-St. Stephen’s United Church, and in 1968 the church at Hastings joined with them. In 1959, the Fort Lawrence church building was sold to the Reformed Baptist church in Amherst. It was taken down and moved to Spring Street.

Scope and Content: Sous-fonds consists of minutes and membership lists from Fort Lawrence Methodist/United Church. Sous-fonds is composed of following series:
