What is Affirming? As a faith community of the United Church of Canada, St. John's United church, Dalhousie and Bethel United church, Nash Creek, we strive to become a welcoming and inclusive presence in our community and the world by supporting the full participation of people of any age, race, ethnicity, background, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, ability, marital status, family composition, and social or economical circumstance in the life and work of our ministry.

BRING your lawn chair, hat, and sunscreen. ALL are welcome!
